Subject: Era Motorsport Classic Rally Championship for the John Munroe Memorial Trophy

Issue Date: February 27, 2023

The Canadian Association of Rally Sport (CARS) is pleased to announce that Era Motorsport of Indianapolis, IN, will sponsor the recently formed Canadian Classic Rally Championship, to be titled:

Era Motorsport Classic Rally Championship for the John Munroe Memorial Trophy.

Formed by professional racing driver and frequent rally competitor, Kyle Tilley, Era Motorsport has bases in the US and the UK, and competes around the world in a diverse portfolio of racing disciplines. At the heart of the Era Motorsport brand is a specialization in all types of historic racing from F1, to sportscars, to, of course, rally.

The Era Motorsport Classic Rally Championship will be contested over the remaining 7 rounds of the Canadian Rally Championship (CRC) in 2023, starting with the Rocky Mountain Rally in Radium, B.C. on June 2- 4, 2023. The championship is open to all 2WD vehicles produced prior to December 1990 and meeting the full eligibility requirements for that are available here. Points are awarded according to CARS rule 24.1.6.2.

The overall championship winner will be awarded the annual John Munroe Memorial Trophy as well as a keeper award at the CARS Award ceremonies. (TBA).

Event awards include trophies for the first 3 places amongst the Era Motorsports Classic Rally Championship contenders at each event and $500 for first place classic.

$250 for second place classic.

and $100 for third place classic.

Awards will only be presented if there are 2 or more Championship entrants at an event.

To register for the Championship, please fill out the form that can be found here, and return to office@carsrally.ca. For guidance on vehicle eligibility email technical@carsrally.ca.
